1. Exclusivity of Procedures

These procedures shall be the exclusive means to participate in the litigation before the District Court of issues relating to the disallowance of ~~Challenged~~ GO Bond Claims on the grounds set forth in the ~~Objection~~GO Objections.

2. Notice of Participation

Any party in interest, including, without limitation, the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority (“AAFAF”), the Official Committee of Retired Employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (together with AAFAF, the “Title III Parties”), and any person or entity that holds a ~~Challenged~~ GO Bond Claim, whether or not such person or entity is identified in Appendix I to the ~~Objection~~GO Objections, that wishes to participate in the litigation of the ~~Objection~~GO Objections must serve by email and file a notice of its intent to participate in such litigation (a “Notice of Participation”).

The Notice of Participation shall (a) indicate whether the party in interest who filed such notice (each, a “Participant”) supports or opposes the Objection; (b) provide the name, address and email address of the Participant and its counsel, if any; and (c), to the extent filed by a ~~Challenged~~ GO Bondholder, set forth (i) whether all or part of such ~~Challenged~~ GO Bonds were purchased on the secondary market, and (ii) the CUSIP numbers for such ~~Challenged~~ GO Bonds to the best of such ~~Challenged~~ GO Bondholder’s knowledge and belief, as of the date of such Notice of Participation (the “Notice Information”). The Notice of Participation shall cover all

~~Challenged~~ GO Bonds owned as of the date of such Notice of Participation or thereafter acquired by the Participant and shall not be limited to the specific CUSIP numbers listed. For the avoidance of doubt, a party in interest may submit a Notice of Participation individually and/or through an ad hoc group. A Notice of Participation submitted through an ad hoc group shall entitle each member of such ad hoc group to participate either individually or as part of the group, and each such member reserves the right to act individually from time to time in respect of any issue, argument, or proceeding. To the extent that an entity ceases to be a member of an ad hoc group that filed a Notice of Participation, such member may continue to participate in the litigation of the Objection in the same manner as a Participant that had filed a timely individual Notice of Participation; provided however, that such Participant will be bound by (i) any actions, arguments, statements or positions made or taken by such ad hoc group prior to the date on which the Participant ceased to be a member of such ad hoc group (the “Separation Date”), and (ii) any District Court orders applicable to members of such ad hoc group as of the Separation Date, in each case to the same extent, if any, that members of such ad hoc group would be bound by such actions, arguments, statements, positions or District Court orders. To the extent that an entity becomes a member of an ad hoc group after the Participation Deadline, such member shall be covered by the Notice of Participation timely filed by the ad hoc group, provided that (i) such Notice of Participation shall be updated to include the Notice Information for the new group member, and (ii) if such member did not file its own timely Notice of Participation, such member shall have obtained, pursuant to paragraph 5 below, District Court approval to participate in the litigation, individually or as a member of the ad hoc group, upon a showing of good cause. Participants who file Notices of Participation that support the ~~Objection~~GO Objections shall collectively constitute “Joint Objectors,” and parties that oppose the relief sought in the ~~Objection~~GO Objections shall collectively constitute the “Respondents.”

Each Notice of Participation must be served by email on the “Notice Parties” identified in paragraph 8 below and filed electronically with the District Court pursuant to its Electronic Case Filing procedures. Participants without counsel may file the Notice of Participation by mailing or delivering it by hand to: The Clerk of the United States District Court for the District of Puerto, Room 150 Federal Building, 150 Carlos Chardon Avenue, San Juan, PR 00918-1767 the clerk’s office of the District Court in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

The ~~deadlined~~deadlines to file with the District Court and serve by email a Notice of Participation for the 2012-2014 GO Bond Objection is April 16, 2019 ~~(the, and for the 2011 GO Bond Objection is~~ (each a “Participation Deadline”). For those parties that file with the District Court and serve by email Notices of Participation by the Participation Deadline, no substantive response to the Objection need be filed until a date set forth in any subsequent scheduling order entered by the District Court.

Subject to paragraph 5 below, any party that does not file a Notice of Participation will not receive notices of filings and events in the litigation and may not be allowed to substantively participate in the litigation absent permission granted by the District Court upon a showing of good cause, but may nevertheless have its rights affected by the outcome of the litigation. In particular, and subject to applicable appellate rights, if the District Court grants the ~~Objection~~GO Objections in whole or in part, claimants’ recovery on account of the ~~Challenged~~ GO Bond Claims will be eliminated in whole or in part, and claimants will be forever barred from asserting such claims against the Commonwealth, from voting on any plan of adjustment filed in this Title

III Case, and from participating in any distribution in this Title III Case on account of such claims arising from the ~~Challenged~~ GO Bonds and the ~~Challenged~~ GO Bond Claims. By filing a Notice of Participation, a claimant will have the opportunity to be heard on the merits of the Objection, will be entitled to receive notification of case events specific to the Objection, and will receive notice of opportunities to meet and confer with other parties concerning issues relating to the litigation of the Objection.

Nothing herein, nor the mere filing of a Notice of Participation by a person or entity that is not a holder of a ~~Challenged~~ GO Bond, shall operate to confer standing upon such person or entity to participate in the litigation of the ~~Objection~~ GO Objections, and all rights to object to any person or entity's standing are preserved.

3. The Initial Proposal Exchange/ Recommendation

On the date that is five (5) days after the applicable Participation Deadline, the Objectors shall file with the District Court a list of all parties that filed Notices of Participation, their counsel, and whether such Participants are Joint Objectors or Respondents. ~~Twenty-one (21)~~ On or before June 1, 2019 [five business days after the ~~Participation Deadline~~ entry of order approving these Revised Procedures] (the "Initial Proposal Exchange Deadline"), Joint Objectors, Objectors and ~~the Objectors, on the one hand, and~~ Respondents (individually and/or through ad hoc groups), ~~on the other,~~ will simultaneously exchange proposals (the "Initial Proposals") by email setting forth the procedures that will govern litigation of the ~~Objection~~ GO Objections, including, without limitation, anticipated legal and factual disputes, the sequence and timing of discovery, anticipated dispositive motion practice and the timing thereof, and treatment of holders of ~~Challenged~~ GO Bonds who did not file Notices of Participation (the "Objection Litigation Procedures"). The Initial Proposals will be exchanged in the following manner: Joint Objectors will send by and Respondents shall email their Initial Proposals to the Notice Parties. The Objectors will cause their Initial Proposals and all parties who filed Notices of Participation, but such received Initial Proposals to be uploaded to the [website] (the "GO Objection Website"). The Initial Proposals will not be filed with the District Court. Parties will not be precluded from raising claims or defenses that are not included in the Initial Proposals.

During the twenty-one (21) day period following the Initial Proposal Exchange Deadline, the ~~Objectors and the Participants~~ M&C Parties (identified in paragraph 9 below) shall meet and confer concerning the substance of the Initial Proposals in an effort to develop a joint recommendation regarding Objection Litigation Procedures for the District Court. The Objectors will convene the meet and confer session(s) and provide notice of any meeting(s) or phone conference(s) to all ~~Participants. The Objectors and the Participants~~ M&C Parties. The M&C Parties shall use reasonable efforts to develop a fully consensual recommendation with respect to Objection Litigation Procedures that also incorporates the views, if known, of Participants who are not M&C Parties.

On ~~the date that is twenty-one (or before~~ , 2019 [21] days ~~following~~after the Initial Proposal Exchange Deadline,] the Objectors shall cause to be filed with the District Court a recommendation concerning the proposed Objection Litigation Procedures (the “Recommendation”) and shall indicate, if known, which Participants support the Recommendation, and the Participants, if any, that object to such Recommendation. The Objectors shall have caused a draft of the Recommendation to have been ~~sent by email to all Participants~~posted to the GO Objection Website at least five (5) business days prior to filing the Recommendation; thereafter, Participants shall have four (4) business days to provide further input on the proposed Objection Litigation Procedures by emailing such comments to the Notice Parties. The Notice Parties will send any such comments received by Participants who are not M&C Parties, to the M&C Parties.

Any responses to the Recommendation must be filed with the District Court within seven (7) days of the filing of the Recommendation (the “Response Deadline”), and any replies to such responses must be filed within three (3) days following the Response Deadline (the “Reply Deadline”).

Any Recommendation approved by the District Court shall be binding on all GO Bondholders, even if their applicable Participation Deadline has not yet occurred.

5. Notices of Participation Submitted After the Participation Deadline

Any party that submits a Notice of Participation after the Participation Deadline, but at least thirty (30) days prior to a trial on the merits of the ~~Objection~~GO Objections, may participate in the litigation of the ~~Objection~~GO Objections by receiving notices of developments in the litigation and invitations to any meet and confer sessions among the parties to the litigation. Such party, however, shall be bound by any orders entered by the District Court (including any order granting a dispositive motion, such as a motion for summary judgment) and/or any agreements reached among the Objectors, Joint Objectors and Respondents prior to the submission of such Notice of Participation regarding the conduct of the litigation, including with respect to the matters set forth in paragraph 3 above. Moreover, absent permission granted by the District Court upon a showing of good cause, any party that fails to file a Notice of Participation, or that files a Notice of Participation after the applicable Participation Deadline, shall be prohibited from filing separate pleadings, serving discovery, or being heard at any hearing on the Objection.

6. No Duty

No Respondent shall have a duty to any other Respondent or to any ~~Challenged~~GO Bondholder who does not file a Notice of Participation.
